5. NEW BUSINESS

A. Recruitment of Youth Advisory Commissioners (Discussion / Action Item)

Chairperson Flores stated that using Facebook to recruit new members is another possibility. More teenagers are more willing to find out more about the Youth Commission if they find it on Facebook. T/C Wong stated that there are several applicants that are scheduled for interviews. R/S stated the idea on use of social media/networking is a good idea.

B. Promotion of Alameda Youth Advisory Commission (Discussion / Action Item)

T/C Wong also stated that the City of Alameda is updating their Website. The new web address will be more user-friendly with www.CityofAlameda.gov. Use City's Web Page and Facebook as an alternative when promoting.

C. Candidates Forum (Discussion / Action Item)

T/C Wong stated that the Candidates Forum will be held on Wed. Oct. 20th, sponsored by Alternatives in Action, Home Base. Since this is youth driven, the Youth Commission was invited to assist with questions to the Candidates on issues concerning youth in Alameda. Commissioner Singh will be attending and Chairperson Flores was not sure due to work schedule.

6. UNFINISHED BUSSINESS

A. Community Service Resource Guide for students (Discussion / Action Item)

Chairperson Flores, stated that he is working on the updates for the Resource Guide, he had contacted Mastick Senior Center, Midway Shelter, and Volunteers of America. Commissioner Singh stated that she contacted the schools for their required community service hours prior to graduation. The following schools require 20 hours; Lincoln and Wood Middle Schools, Alameda and Encinal High Schools. Commissioner Singh is still waiting for a reply from Academy of Alameda.

Chairperson Flores stated the Island High also required 20 hours.

Commissioner Chin stated that Alameda Science and Technology Institute requires 20 hours prior to graduation.

Commissioner Mei stated that Saint Joseph Norte Dame High School, Freshman and Sophomore class requires 15 hours each year; and the Juniors and Seniors class required 25 hours each year.

R/S Russi, reminded the Youth Commission to be sure to put "DRAFT" on their work to avoid confusion.

7. ORAL COMMUNICATIONS, GENERAL

TC Wong invited the Youth Commission to the 7th Annual Teen Haunted House. The planning meetings are Wednesdays; the clubs are signed up and are ready for a great scare. R/S Russi stated monies raised benefit future teen events, such as Friday Night Lights, Overnight Mystery event, etc.
